

B Certificate of Proficiency Study Guide

Reference Manuals:

- PIM 1
- PIM 2A
- PIM2B

Preparation

- Basic preparation skills and the benefits of using them.
- Self-directed instruction.

Inflight

- Aircraft emergencies.
- Spotting: WDI's, upwind and downwind spots.

Freefall

- Freefall math calculations.
- Body positions and their uses
- Style series.
- Basic RW safety.

Canopy Control

- Canopy flight theory.
- Accuracy approaches.
- Unusual situations.
- Right of way rules.

Equipment

- Packing information.
- Gear care and storage.

Technical Knowledge

- Rules: BSR's versus Recommendations.
- Abbreviations.
- B CoP privileges.
- Other B CoP relevant information
- First aid.
- PIM series reference manuals: topic headings.
- Review RW endorsement listed in PIM 2B.

The following items must be completed in order to acquire your CoP:

- * All practical requirements for the CoP
- * Exam in a sealed envelope
- * CoP application and $45 fee
- * All logbooks required for the CoP unless verified by a Logbook Examiner.
- * Endorsement card required for the CoP unless verified by a Logbook Examiner.
- * Proof of current CSPA membership

COP.020.E.