One of our bigger changes this year is to change the magazine release months. Instead of releasing the magazine on a fiscal timeline, it will be annual. We will be seeing this change in the upcoming 2026 issues. Victor continues to be our dedicated graphic designer and our translators continue to do incredible and consistent work, thank you Andre and Isabelle! I am still the editor and look after advertising for the time being with the help of Michelle Matte-Stotyn and Allison Cooney. There are some small changes happening this year to anticipate the digital landscape with the goal of prioritizing our readers and attracting new advertisers, more on that soon so stay tuned!
