

Editor – Annaleah McAvoy

2019 was another good year for CanPara! We ran a total of 5 issues with the following amount of pages per edition:

- January-March: 48
- April-May: 48
- June-July: 48
- August-September: 52
- October-December: 48

Submissions this year were more consistent as opposed to 2018's numbers. 65% of articles received were from jumpers who randomly wrote-in while 35% of articles were sought-out (usually over e-mail or comments made from an event on Facebook).

Photo Submissions were much more consistent and a lot higher than 2018's numbers. Due to the high volume, many were not published. If this continues to persist, we will have to revisit our formatting with the designer so that more can fit in our pages and we will need to update/add photos to the Facebook page (at least 6-8 times a month).

Vic continues to be the dedicated layout designer behind the CanPara pages. We continue to work well while staying in communication about the direction of CanPara and the brand we are representing together.

The translators continue to be amazing! Everyone really takes pride in their work and ensures that articles are translated almost as soon as they receive them. Not an easy feat during the jumping months.

Things to look forward to: 2020 is already in full swing, we have another issue on the way (another 48 pages) with articles ready for the issue after that one. I would like to tackle our social media spaces to keep the steady engagement of our readers who have been sharing amazing stories and photos over the last year. As always, I pride myself on working to create a better magazine and am always open to suggestions.